For over 34 years, Columbus Center for Human Services, Inc., a nonprofit 501(c)(3) organization, has worked to enhance the lives of those living with intellectual and developmental disabilities.

We are an industry leader in providing individualized support services. Our person-centered approach puts the individual at the core of all decision-making, ensuring that the support we provide helps them live a meaningful life, however they define it.

Our Mission:

Columbus Center for Human Services, Inc. (CCHS) prioritizes the health, welfare, and personal goals of individuals with disabilities and promotes positive roles for them in the community.

Our Operating Philosophy:

We believe that every individual should have access to and benefit from the full range of resources and opportunities available in their communities and that by having a voice to express their choices they will be empowered and able to lead independent, self-directed, and meaningful lives.
