SHC/The Arc of Medina was founded in 1953 for the purpose of providing care, training, education, housing, recreation and other services to people with developmental disabilities living in Medina County. SHC/The Arc provides the following services: SHC/The Arc's Link provides an opportunity for individuals to attend our day programs. The day programs are curriculum based and provide opportunities for community integration through job training and community volunteering. LBS provides jobs to people with disabilities. SHC/The Arc provides non-medical transportation for work. Camp Paradise offers an overnight summer camp program for adults. SHC/The Arc provides 24-hour care in nine group homes for adults with developmental disabilities. In addition, services are provided to individuals living in the community.
